DEATHS.

Think, Ladies,

whether you ought not to take better care of your health, before it is too late and the dragon of disease has left you nothing but the husk of your former vitality and beauty. You should understand that womanly diseases can nearly always be cured---that they lead to dangerous complications if neglected. A reliable, scientific treatment, for this condition, is in proof of which may be given the well-known case of Mrs. Lurinda C. Hill, of Freeland, O., who writes: "I thought my time had come. My heart was so bad I was afraid to lie down at night, and I suffered terribly with female complaint. I have now taken $1.00 worth of Cardui and 50 cents worth of Thedford's Black-Draught, and have no more trouble with my heart. My periods are regular, my other female troubles are gone, and I sleep like a 16-year old girl." Cardui is a most valuable remedy for most women's diseases. Try it.

Woman's Relief
